2. Primary Means of Communication and Expectations

All members will be expected to read emails and check general slack messages and direct messages from anyone in the group on a daily basis and respond in not more than 10 hours.

3. Scheduling Meetings

- Meeting with Chad Hayen: Thursdays, 2:00pm PST to 3:00pm PST
- Team Meeting: Saturdays or Sundays
- Stand-up Meetings: TBD

4. General Responsibilities of All Team Members

- If a member can't make it to a meeting, they must inform the team 3+ hours ahead.
- Follow through with completing assigned tasks in time.
- Communication is key: If you are struggling with your responsibilities, talk about it. Don't hide information and don't be afraid of failure.
- All other members should not berate others for making mistakes, be respectful of others.
- Feel free to ask for help, especially if you're are facing large difficulties. Also, be open to giving or receiving constructive feedback.
- Document all meetings in the github repository, including important direct messages, asynchronous meetings, and full group meetings.
- Feel free to consider changing roles if that helps the team.

6. Conflict Resolution

- Try to keep conflicts to a minimum
- Speak up when you are uncomfortable with something
- Resolve problems/disagreements as a group if needed.
- Don't attack others; don't bring your arrogance to the team.

7. Specifications of Faculty and TA's

- Try to resolve any issues internally; if not resolvable, seek help from the team; if not resolvable, seek help from TA; if not resolvable, seek help from the Professor.
- Keep in mind that even if one person fails to finish a task by the appointed deadline, the rest of the team is still responsible for presenting a completed project before the end of the quarter.

8. Individual Signature

I attest that I have carefully read through the above contract and will try to abide by it to the fullest.
